THE RIFLE
A long rifle, also known as a Kentucky rifle, was a type of rifle used by frontiersmen and hunters in the 18th and 19th centuries. It was characterized by its long barrel and high accuracy.

THE DRESS
A white dress with a small dark pattern and a ruffled collar, typical of the 18th or 19th century. The dress is displayed on a mannequin torso.

THE BELT
A brown leather belt with a metal buckle, worn around the waist of the dress.
